This Gospel immediately follows upon last week's stories of the raising of Jairus's daughter and the healing of the woman with a hemorrhage. It sets the context of our Gospel readings for the next two weeks in which Jesus will extend the work of his ministry to his disciples.

Today's Gospel describes what many believe to have been the typical pattern of Jesus' ministry: teaching in the synagogue followed by acts of healing. In his hometown of Nazareth, the people are amazed by what they hear, but they also cannot comprehend how someone they know so well might move them so powerfully.

In this Gospel, we learn some interesting details about Jesus and his early life. Jesus' kinfolk know him to be a carpenter, an artisan who works in wood, stone, and metal. He probably learned this trade from his father. Family members of Jesus are also named. Mark describes Jesus as the son of Mary, which is an unusual designation. Adult males were more typically identified with the name of their fathers. It is unclear why Mark deviates from this custom.

Brothers and sisters of Jesus are also named. Scholars are divided on how to interpret this. As Catholics, we believe that Mary was and remained always a virgin, thus we do not believe that this Gospel refers to other children of Mary. Some have suggested that these family members might be Joseph's children from a previous marriage, but there is little evidence to support this. Others explain this reference by noting that the words brother and sister were often used to refer to other types of relatives, including cousins, nieces, and nephews.

This Gospel tells us that Jesus is hampered from performing miracles in Nazareth because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus is said to be surprised by this. He did not predict or foresee this rejection. In this detail we find a description of the very human side of Jesus.

This passage unfolds a continuing theme of Mark's Gospel: Who is Jesus? His kinfolk in Nazareth might know the carpenter, the son of Mary, but they do not know Jesus, the Son of God. Mark is foreshadowing Jesus' rejection by his own people, the people of Israel. He is also reflecting on and trying to explain the situation of the community for which he wrote. While many of the first Christians were Jewish, Christianity took hold and flourished in the Gentile community. Mark's community was mostly a Gentile community, who may have been experiencing persecution. By showing that Jesus himself was rejected, Mark consoles and reassures his first readers. He also prepares us to accept this possible consequence of Christian discipleship.

This Weekend's Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house." So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Hello again! This is Sofia, and I'm back with your AHG update as the Bulletin News Girl Leader for American Heritage Girls (AHG) Troop IL1317. In this edition, I would like to cover the activities we have done since March.

The whole Troop worked on the Aviation badge! Girls from all levels completed the requirements and worked together to learn more about the wonder of aviation. In April, we even took a field trip to the Schaumburg Regional Airport! We spoke to pilots and learned about what it takes to work in the field of aviation, as well as took a tour of the aircraft hangar and saw a preflight inspection and the flight tools of the planes they were flying. We even got to pretend we were pilots and sit in the cockpit! What a blast!

On April 28, we held our annual AHG Recognition Sunday to recognize all the hard work our Troop girls did in completing their AHG Catholic Faith Awards, segment patches and medals. Also, Girls were awarded their Eucharistic Revival patches they worked so hard on, as I mentioned in the previous edition.

On May 4, AHG participated in the monthly First Saturday morning Holy Mass where the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Anointing of the Sick were available during the Mass. AHG lead rosary prayers afterwards. Please join us for this monthly Holy Mass, Sacraments and rosary.

Also on May 4, we had our annual retreat with Fr Richie Mercado, focusing on the Eucharistic Revival. The girls opened their hearts to the graces that God poured upon them and their families and said YES to Jesus's invitation to know Him more intimately.

After Mass on June 2nd, 8th and 9th, I asked for donations to help fund my AHG Stars & Stripes Project to refurbish Burke Hall at the St. Alphonsus campus. Burke Hall serves the Youth Ministry for Sts. Thomas Becket and Alphonsus Liguori Parish as well as other Parish groups like Prayerful Creations, Book Club, and Bible Study. I would like to thank everyone who contributed funds or kind wishes for this project. Please be on the lookout for updates on the project and possibly more fundraisers in the future!

Our AHG Troop has many upcoming events. Girls ages 5-18 who want to have fun while helping others and grow closer to God are always welcome. Those who are interested or would like to visit a Troop meeting can email our Troop Coordinator Mrs. Schorsch: skp480@gmail.com.

In July, I'll report about more fun events and activities of Troop IL1317. Thank you for reading!

Grief Group

As much as happiness is a part of life, so is loss, and its burden may feel a little lighter when it is shared. If you have experienced a loss recently or even long ago, we would like to journey with you.

Please consider being part of our Grief Group. Anyone is welcome to join us.

Upcoming Gatherings - Tuesdays:

July 9 & July 23

6:30pm—8:00pm

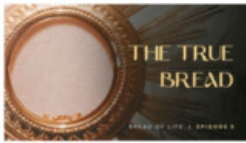

St. Thomas Becket Hall

Purpose: to be with you, to listen to you, to learn what we can do to support you. The gathering is hosted by Joni Fine, who is the assistant facilitator for "To Be Joyful Again" at Holy Family Parish in Inverness, and Doreen Kelly, STBAL Director of Parish Ministry and Evangelization.
